Transportation Security Manager, December 2009 – September 2022

Oversee and coordinate TSA security activities, preventing dangerous objects from entering aircraft. Assess the effectiveness of security procedures, reviewing and applying TSA policy directives and regulations. Align daily activities with overarching organizational goals, leading operations at multiple screening checkpoints. Supervise, train, evaluate, and motivate more than 14 direct reports and 84 officers (indirect reports), ensuring all performance standards and Federal requirements are met or exceeded, providing behaviorally-specific feedback and encouraging and rewarding Officers. Build subject matter expertise in security issues, threats, and challenges, understanding the role of TSA as well as other agencies and collaborating with other members of senior leadership to identify and act on opportunities for improvement. Manage security programs, designing and implementing screening procedures. Identified and allocated equipment and personnel needs. Document activities, issues, and outcomes. Collaborate with team members to review and assess operational strategies, continually focused on enhancing ability to respond to critical or unusual situations with limited information. Design and deliver training on a wide variety of issues on a continual basis, including conflict management, de-escalation, technical skills, and supervisory skills. Prepare incident reports and author informational briefings for a wide variety of internal and external stakeholders. Perform a variety of technical screening procedures and use cutting-edge equipment, including explosives trace detection, x-ray, hand held metal detector, full body pat down, physical bag search, and travel document checking, among others. Served as Behavior Detection and Analysis Coordinator, deploying teams of Behavior Detection Officers around the airport and to work high risk flights to detect deceptive practices and engage those passengers exhibiting those behaviors to assess the need for additional screening.
